ASSIGNMENTS

1. Book Evaluations and Reading Guidance Web 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, 5.1
2. Book Evaluations and Book Video 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, 5.1
3. Book Evaluations and Reading Promotion Plan 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, 5.1, 5.4
4. Book Evaluations and Reading Instructional Strategies 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, 2.4, 5.1

SLM 505 Information Sources

ALA/AASL stands for Standards for Initial Preparation of School Librarians (2010); CF means our Educational Unit's Conceptual Framework of Knowledge, Diversity, Professional Dispositions, Reflection, Communication, and Technology.

This course explores information sources and services for the diverse learning community. Topics include selecting and evaluating all information sources including databases, ebooks, and emerging technologies as well as developing multiple strategies for students to locate, evaluate, and ethically use information. Candidates prepare an information sources bibliography, design activities using reference sources, and integrate information sources into curricular units. (Graduate Catalog)

OBJECTIVES

1. To prepare an information sources bibliography consisting of at least 30 sources—websites, databases, and ebooks. (ALA/AASL 3.1, 5.1; CF 1)
2. To create two pathfinders for specific content area in a grade level that model multiple strategies to locate, evaluate, and ethically use information for specific purposes. (ALA/AASL 3.1, 3.2; CF 1)
3. To create two sets of database instructions using current digital tools. (ALA/AASL 3.2, 3.3; CF 1,6)
4. To create a reference webpage that provides links to your information sources, public library, pathfinders, database instructions, and legal and ethical policies such as plagiarism, copyright, acceptable use, intellectual freedom, privacy, and equitable access. (ALA/AASL 3.1, 3.2, 3.3, 4.1, 5.1, 5.2; CF 1,6)

ASSIGNMENTS

1. Information Sources Bibliography 3.1, 5.1
2. Curriculum Unit Pathfinders 3.1, 3.2
3. Database Instructions 3.2, 3.3
4. Reference Web Page 3.1, 3.2, 3.3, 4.1, 5.1, 5.2

SLM 506 Collection Development

This course examines how to create a collection that supports the learning needs of the students and faculty. Topics include school curriculum, selection tools, policies, and the procedures for developing, maintaining, and evaluating the collection. Candidates complete a community and school analysis, create a curriculum chart, prepare a materials order, and evaluate a portion of a library collection through collection mapping and other assessment techniques. (Graduate Catalog)

OBJECTIVES

1. To use data and information to learn how to develop a quality collection by conducting a school and community analysis and by creating a school curriculum chart at either the elementary, middle, or high school level. (ALA/AASL 1.1, 5.4; CF 1)
2. To evaluate and select print, non-print, and digital resources by using professional selection tools and evaluation criteria to develop and manage a quality collection designed to meet the diverse curricular, personal, and professional needs of students, teachers, and administrators. (ALA/AASL 5.1; CF 1,2)
3. To demonstrate the ability to develop a collection of reading and information materials in print and digital formats that supports the diverse developmental, cultural, social, and linguistic needs of P-12 students and their communities. (ALA/AASL 5.1, 2.3; CF 1)

4. To analyze and evaluate a library collection according to criteria such as age, circulation, and usefulness and to explain this information to the staff. (ALA/AASL 3.4, 5.1; CF 1, 3)

ASSIGNMENTS

1. School Analysis/Curriculum Chart 1.1, 5.4
2. Selection Sources 3.2, 5.1
3. Collection Evaluation 3.4, 5.1
4. Materials Order 2.3, 5.1

SLM 508 Learning Technologies

This course examines the current and emerging web-based technologies that support the P-12 setting and school library program. Topics include digital citizenship, professional collaboration and communication, and the integration of emerging technologies in instruction. Candidates demonstrate their ability to design and adapt relevant learning experiences that engage students in authentic learning by using digital tools and resources. (Graduate Catalog)

OBJECTIVES

1. To discuss and model digital citizenship and responsibility. (ALA/AASL 5.2; CF1,6)
2. To collaborate as members of social and intellectual network of learners, using social media and other web-based technologies. (ALA/AASL 4.1; CF 1,6)
3. To integrate the use of emerging technologies into instruction as a means for effective and creative teaching and to support P-12 students' conceptual understanding, critical thinking, and creative processes. (ALA/AASL 1.4; CF1,6)
4. To demonstrate ability to engage students in authentic learning by using digital tools and resources. (ALA/AASL 3.3; CF 1,6)

ASSIGNMENTS

1. Blogging 3.3, 4.1, 5.2
2. Digital Storytelling/Web 2.0 Tool 1.1, 3.1, 3.3
3. Technology Research Voice Thread 1.4, 3.3, 4.1
4. Designing and Delivering Digital Experiences 1.4, 3.3, 4.1, 5.2

SLM 509 Instructional Collaboration

This course examines the librarian's role of instructional partner and teacher. Topics include the AASL Standards for 21st Century Learners, collaborative planning, implementation of effective instructional strategies, and assessment in an inquiry-based approach to learning. Candidates design inquiry-based lesson plans and a unit plan, visit school libraries to observe collaborative environments, develop an in-service presentation, and explore ways to improve student learning in the school library. (Graduate Catalog)

ALA/AASL stands for Standards for Initial Preparation of School Librarians (2010); CF means our Educational Unit's Conceptual Framework of Knowledge, Diversity, Professional Dispositions, Reflection, Communication, and Technology.

OBJECTIVES

1. To define the role of the school librarian in collaborative partnerships.(ALA/AASL 1.3; CF 1,3)*
2. To create an in-service program that promotes the process and benefits of collaboration. (ALA/AASL 1.3, 1.4; CF 1,5)
3. To design an inquiry-based unit to meet 21st century information literacy skills and student curriculum standards.(ALA/AASL 1.1, 1.2, 1.4; CF 1)
4. To generate two lessons based on AASL Standards for the 21st-Century Learner that engage students' interests, address multiple literacies, and support the learning of all students.(ALA/AASL 1.1, 1.4; CF 1)
5. To identify and create diagnostic, formative and summative assessment tools that are used in instruction and are designed collaboratively. (ALA/AASL 1.1, 1.2; CF 1)
6. To develop competence in using various instructional strategies to increase students' conceptual understanding and critical thinking skills.(ALA/AASL 1.1,1.2; CF 1,2)

ASSIGNMENTS

1. Visit/interview two school librarians at different levels while they are teaching 1.3
2. Inquiry-based unit 1.1, 1.2, 1.4
3. Two lesson plans using the AASL's Standards for the 21st Century Learner 1.1, 1.4
4. In-service on benefits and process of collaboration 1.3, 1.4

SLM 550 PROFESSIONAL PORTFOLIO

In this course, candidates create a digital portfolio, demonstrating they have met the five standards for certification established by the 2010 AASL Standards for Initial Preparation of School Librarians: (1) teaching for learning, (2) literacy and reading, (3) information and knowledge, (4) advocacy and leadership, and (5) program management and administration. Candidates align artifacts with the standards and elements, compose reflection statements, and collaborate with peers through the revision process. (Graduate Catalog)

OBJECTIVES

1. To review, revise, and select previous course artifacts that show achievement of the five ALA/AASL standards and elements. (ALA/AASL 1-5; CF 1)
2. To compose reflection statements how their artifacts meet the Target or Acceptable ALA/AASL standards and elements. (ALA/AASL 1-5; CF 4)
3. To critique their peers' artifacts and reflection statements. (ALA/AASL 1-5; CF 1,5)
4. To construct a well-designed portfolio. (ALA/AASL 1-5; CF 4-6)

ASSIGNMENTS

SLM 552 PRACTICUM IN SCHOOL LIBRARIANSHIP

This course provides candidates the opportunity to put into practice the knowledge they have gained in their coursework by completing a 99-hour practicum and working in a school library under the supervision of a certified school librarian and a McDaniel College instructor. (Candidates who are not teacher certified must demonstrate 40 hours engaged in direct teaching or working with students. Candidates who are currently working as school librarians will complete the practicum in their own buildings and will have a school library mentor.) Candidates create a thematic literature activity; plan and implement a staff in-service; develop, implement, and assess a collaborative lesson with a content teacher; evaluate the library using state and national standards; and reflect on their experiences. Candidates are encouraged to collect data for their action research project created in RSM 541. (Graduate Catalog)

OBJECTIVES

1. To demonstrate in action an understanding of the American Association of School Librarian's professional guidelines as stated in Empowering Learners and in the 2010 ALA/AASL Standards for Initial Preparation of School Librarians: (1) Teaching for Learning, (2) Literacy and Reading, (3) Information and Knowledge, (4) Advocacy and Leadership, and (5) Program Management and Administration.
2. To embrace the McDaniel College Graduate Studies Theme and demonstrate that you are a "caring, reflective practitioner who facilitates learning for all students in a diverse and technological society."

ASSIGNMENTS

1. Thematic Literature Activity 2.1, 2.2
2. Collaborative Lesson 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4
3. Staff In-service 4.4
4. Program Assessment 5.4
5. Practicum Learning/Reflection Log

RSM 541 School Library Action ResearchCOURSE DESCRIPTION

ALA/AASL stands for Standards for Initial Preparation of School Librarians (2010); CF means our Educational Unit's Conceptual Framework of Knowledge, Diversity, Professional Dispositions, Reflection, Communication, and Technology.

This course provides an overview of the key concepts and practices of action research as it can be applied in a school library setting. Topics include current school library research, appropriate educational-applied research, and how to conduct an action research project. Candidates develop the beginning of an action research project by identifying a problem, reviewing the research literature, developing problem statements and research questions, and developing data collection tools with the expectation that it will be implemented in SLM 552/553. (Graduate Catalog)

OBJECTIVES

1. To describe the characteristics of action research. (ALA/AASL 3.4, 4.2; CF 1; MTTs II.A.1)*
2. To discuss and explain the rationale for conducting action research for school library programs. (ALA/AASL 3.4, 4.2; CF 1, 5; MTTs II.A.1)
3. To analyze and discuss school-based action research projects. (ALA/AASL 3.4, 4.2, 5.4; CF 1,5; MTTs I.2, I.4)
4. To examine the various research methods and technology that is used for data collection in action research. (ALA/AASL 3.1, 3.4; CF 1, 6; MTTs IV.1, IV.2)
5. To develop the beginning of an action research project by identifying a problem, reviewing the research literature, developing problem statements and research questions, and developing data collection tools (ALA/AASL 3.4, 4.2, 4.3, 5.4; CF 1, 5, 6; MTTs I.2, I.4, I.B.2, IV.3)

ASSIGNMENTS

1. Interview with Practicing School Librarian 3.1, 5.4
2. Evaluate Published Action Research Project 3.4, 4.2, 5.4
3. Develop Problem Statement and Research Questions 5.4
4. Literature Review on Action Research Topic 4.2
5. Data Collection Tools Activity 3.1, 3.4
6. Multimedia Presentation of Research Project 3.4, 4.2, 4.3, 5.4

ALA/AASL STANDARDS FOR INITIAL PREPARATION OF SCHOOL LIBRARIANS (2010)

Your courses and assignments reflect the following 5 professional standards and 20 elements. Please keep your assignments as you will be revising and reflecting on them when you take your final course, SLM 550 Professional Portfolio. You may use this as a checklist as you progress through your McDaniel College School Library Program.

Completed	Courses	Professional Standards and Elements
		Standard 1: Teaching for Learning Candidates are effective teachers who demonstrate knowledge of learners and learning and who model and promote collaborative planning, instruction in multiple literacies, and inquiry-based learning, enabling members of the learning community to become effective users and creators of ideas and information. Candidates design and implement instruction that engages students' interests and develops their ability to inquire, think critically, gain and share knowledge.
	506,509,505	1.1 Knowledge of learners and learning Candidates are knowledgeable of learning styles, stages of human growth and development, and cultural influences on learning. Candidates assess learner needs and design instruction that reflects educational best practice.
